

Sherwood Forest Inc. Staff Looks Forward to the Great Frederick Fair 2009

Mt Airy, MD - Chimney Sweeps of Sherwood Forest Inc. will once again host a table at the Great Frederick Fair (September 18-26, 2009). Staff members will be on hand to answer questions, pass out information and help direct people to the many event attractions.

“Our staff looks forward to this great community event each and every year,” said Javier Rosas, Owner of Sherwood Forest Inc. “It is always great to meet new families and enjoy the festivities.”

This year’s fair will also feature the added excitement of the Chimney Sweeps of Sherwood Forest on-going Summer Stove Sweepstakes. One Maryland family will be selected (October 15, 2009) as the winner of a brand new wood, pellet or gas stove from the Sherwood Forest Inc. in-stock inventory. Maryland residents 18 and over can register online , or in person at the fair.

The Great Frederick Fair has been a staple of the Mid-Maryland Community since 1862. The Grandstand was built in 1911 and has housed some of the biggest stars in the entertainment business over the years. In 2009, Billy Ray Cyrus, Brenda Lee and the Gatlin Brothers will be performing, among other artists. See the full schedule at www.thegreatfrederickfair.com

The Chimney Sweeps of Sherwood Forest Table will once again be located on Machinery Row just a few steps from the Hemp's Meats building near Gate 4A on Highland Street. For more information, call 888-CHIM-FIX, or e mail us at service@chimneysweepsofsherwoodforest.com
