

VOLUNTEER VOICE

Volunteer News from the Loudoun Free Clinic

May 2009

Our Mission:

To support healthcare for Loudoun County Residents who, as a result of economic or other barriers, would otherwise do without.

NOW AVAILABLE ONLINE: THE LOUDOUN FREE CLINIC VOLUNTEER INFORMATION CENTER!

All Loudoun Free Clinic volunteers are now able to access the schedule online. The Volunteer Information Center allows you to:

- View and manage your schedule
- Sign up for shifts
- View your service-to-date
- Update your profile
- And much more!

Go to www.loudounfreeclinic.org, rollover the volunteer tab, and select "Volunteer Log-in." If you have not received your password, or if you are having trouble with the Information Center, please let us know!

We need your help!

PLEASE update your contact information, especially phone, email, mailing address and date of birth as soon as possible. This can be done online, or by contacting the Volunteer Coordinator.

Clinic Needs

Providers (MDs, NPs, & PAs)— Needed for evening clinics throughout May. We are also looking for a provider to do monthly gynecological clinics for our patients.

Interpreters - Needed for evening clinics throughout May (none currently scheduled 5/14)

Nurses/EMTs - Needed for evening clinics throughout May (especially 5/13 and 5/27). Also needed for morning clinics—contact Kat for more details.

Eligibility Screeners - Needed Monday through Thursday during the day. Must be willing to commit to a regular schedule.

Dinner Duty— Do you know someone who wants to help in a non-clinical way? We need people who are willing to cook dinner for our volunteers once a month. All other volunteers, clinical and non-clinical, are needed throughout May. Check the schedule online for open shifts.
